WHAT TO BRING

A checklist of essential items to bring to Reading.

You've probably got a fairly good idea of what you need to bring with you already, but there are some things that might not immediately spring to mind when you come to pack your suitcase and you'll wish you had thought of once you get here!

Below are some suggestions of useful items that might help make it easier to settle in during your first week here. This is by no means an extensive list, but it should help you to get started.

If you are moving into University accommodation you will also receive a Halls Arrival Guide from our Accommodation Team later in the summer.

Important documents:

- Photo ID (e.g. a valid passport, national identity card, or EU photo driving licence)*
- Any official paperwork you have received from the University
- Bank details, cards, cheque book and paying in book
- National Insurance Number (if applicable)
- NHS card (if applicable)
- Details of your student finance arrangements (if applicable)

*You will need these to complete your enrolment and collect your Campus Card. You will also need them if you want to take part in some extra-curricular activities (like helping in local schools or becoming part of the Peer Support team) - you will also need an official document with your address on.

Things for your room:

- Alarm clock (for early lectures)
- Drawing pins for pictures and posters
- Bed linen - including sheets, duvet/blankets, pillows and cases
- Towels
- Clothes (including some fancy dress for themed parties!)
- Coat hangers
- Extension lead
- Socket adapter (for international students)
- Stereo or iPod/PC speakers
- Personal items and toiletries, such as soap/shower gel, shampoo, shaving equipment etc

Kitchen equipment:

- Tin opener
