Programme information and content

The aim of the programme is to prepare graduates for a career in the financial risk management industry. The programme will provide participants with the opportunity to develop and demonstrate their understanding of both the theory and practical applications of modern finance in the related fields of market and credit risk management. This programme is accredited by the Global Association of Risk Professionals (GARP). Integral to the academic course is the parallel study of the GARP FRM Part I certificate. Upon successful completion of their degree, students will be registered to take the FRM Part I examination.

Module information

The programme comprises of 180 credits, allocated across a range of compulsory and optional modules. Compulsory modules are listed.

A complete list of option modules is available from the Programme Director, and a list of current options can be found in the relevant Programme Handbook. There is no guarantee that in any one year all modules will be available. New option modules may also be added.

Students on the 12 month version of the programme must select at least one module running in the Summer Term.

Part-time or flexible modular arrangements

This programme is only available on a full-time basis.

Additional costs of the programme

There are no textbooks which you must buy and students are encouraged to discuss the purchase of textbooks or other resources with the module convenor before purchasing. Some books may be available second-hand, which will reduce costs.

A range of resources to support your curriculum, including textbooks, electronic resources and computer facilities, are available through the Central Library and the Business School Academic Resource Centre.

Printing and photocopying facilities are available on campus at a cost per A4 page of £0.05 (black and white) and £0.30 (colour). Essential costs in this area will be low as most coursework is submitted electronically. Costs are indicative and may vary according to optional modules chosen and are subject to inflation and other price fluctuations.

Optional modules

The optional modules available can vary from year to year. An indicative list of the range of optional modules for your Programme is set out in the Further Programme Information. Details of any additional costs associated with the optional modules, will be made available to you prior to the beginning of the programme. Entry to optional modules will be at the discretion of the University and subject to availability. Although the University tries to ensure you are able to take the optional modules in which you have expressed interest this cannot be guaranteed.

Placement opportunities

An optional summer module gives students on the 12-month programme the opportunity to undertake a work placement.

Teaching and learning delivery

Teaching is organised in modules. The method of delivery varies among modules, especially in terms of the proportions of time allocated to lectures, seminars and dealing-room sessions. All modules are part-assessed via a multiple-choice test or coursework that can take a variety of forms. Assessment may involve a written or multiple-choice type examination.

The programme is taught over two 11-week terms. Part 1 begins at the beginning of Welcome Week in September of each year. Part 2 occupies 9 weeks of the spring term and 2 weeks at the beginning of the summer term. For 12-month programmes there is an additional summer period where participants take a 20-credit module.

Accreditation details

The programme is accredited by the following:

GARP (Global Association of Risk Professionals)

PRMIA (Professional Risk Managers' International Association) - graduates are eligible for exemptions for the Professional Risk Manager Designation (PRM) Exams I and II.

Chartered Institute for Securities and Investment (CISI) for the purpose of eligibility to apply for associate membership with that body.

Accredited by the EFMD Quality Improvement System and the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB)

Assessment

All modules are part-assessed via a multiple-choice test or coursework that can take a variety of forms. Assessment may involve a written or multiple-choice type examination.

Examinations for Part 1 modules are held in Week 1 of the following spring term.

Examinations for Part 2 are normally held in late May.
