TIMETABLE APPLICATION FOR ANDROID-POWERED DEVICES
Matthew Hollis
BSc Applied Computer Science, pf011859@rdg.ac.uk

ABSTRACT
The Timetable Assistant Application for Android devices is an application that has been designed and developed to aid students in viewing their timetable on their mobile or tablet devices. The application has been created with the aim to allow students to access their timetable on the go in a simple and easy to use fashion with a number of features to enhance the user experience. The features developed for the initial release of the application satisfy all of the core objectives for the project.

Figure 1. Homepage on the Tablet (left) and the Mobile (right)

Figure 2. Google Integration Verification