PART III DISCIPLINE, DISMISSAL AND REMOVAL FROM OFFICE

Disciplinary Procedures

13. (1) Minor faults shall be dealt with informally.

(2) Where the matter is more serious but falls short of constituting possible good cause for dismissal the following procedure shall be used.

Stage 1 – Oral Warning

If conduct or performance does not meet acceptable standards the member of the academic staff will normally be given a formal oral warning. The member will be advised of the reason for the warning that it is the first stage of the disciplinary procedure and of the right of appeal under this Clause. A brief note of the oral warning will be kept but it will be spent after 12 months subject to satisfactory conduct and performance.

Stage 2 – Written Warning

If the offence is a serious one or if a further offence occurs a written warning will be given to the member of the academic staff by the Head of Department. This will give details of the complaint the improvement required and the timescale. It will warn that a complaint may be made to the Secretary to the Council seeking the institution of charges to be heard by a Tribunal appointed under Clause 16 if there is no satisfactory improvement and will advise of the right of appeal under this Clause. A copy of this written warning will be kept by the Head of Department but it will be disregarded for disciplinary purposes after 2 years subject to satisfactory conduct and performance.

Stage 3 – Appeals

A member of the academic staff who wishes to appeal against a disciplinary warning shall inform the Secretary to the Council within two weeks. The Deputy Vice-Chancellor or a Pro-Vice-Chancellor shall hear all such appeals and his decision shall be final.

Preliminary examination of serious disciplinary matters

14. (1) If there has been no satisfactory improvement following a written warning given under Stage 2 of the procedure in Clause 13 or in any other case where it is alleged that conduct or performance may constitute good cause for dismissal or removal from office a complaint seeking the institution of charges to be heard by a Tribunal appointed under Clause 16 may be made to a Pro-Vice-Chancellor who shall bring it to the attention of the Vice-Chancellor.

(2) To enable the Vice-Chancellor to deal fairly with any complaint brought to his attention under sub-clause (1) he shall institute such investigations or enquiries (if any) as appear to him to be necessary.

(3) If it appears to the Vice-Chancellor that a complaint brought to his attention under sub-clause (1) relates to conduct or performance which does not meet acceptable standards but for which no written warning has been given under Clause 13 or which relates to a particular alleged infringement of rules regulations or byelaws for which a standard penalty is normally imposed in the University or within the faculty school department or other relevant area or is trivial or invalid he may dismiss it summarily or decide not to proceed further under this Part.

(4) If the Vice-Chancellor does not dispose of a complaint under sub-clause (3) he shall treat the complaint as disclosing a sufficient reason for proceeding further under this Part and, if he sees fit, he may suspend the member on full pay pending a final decision.

(5) Where the Vice-Chancellor proceeds further under this Part he shall write to the member of the academic staff concerned inviting comment in writing.

(6) As soon as may be following receipt of the comments (if any) the Vice-Chancellor shall consider the matter in the light of all the material then available and may:
   (a) dismiss it himself; or
   (b) refer it for consideration under Clause 13; or
   (c) deal with it informally himself if it appears to the Vice-Chancellor appropriate to do so and if the member of the academic staff agrees in writing that the matter should be dealt with in that way; or
   (d) direct a Pro-Vice-Chancellor (hereafter referred to as ‘the Pro-Vice-Chancellor’) to prefer a charge or charges to be considered by a Tribunal to be appointed under Clause 16.

(7) If no comment is received within 28 days the Vice-Chancellor may proceed as aforesaid as if the member concerned had denied the substance and validity of the alleged case in its entirety.

Institution of Charges

15. (1) In any case where the Vice-Chancellor has directed that a charge or charges be preferred under Clause 14(6) (d) he shall request the Council to appoint a Tribunal under Clause 16 to hear the charge or charges and to determine whether the conduct or performance of the member of the academic staff concerned constitutes good cause for dismissal or otherwise constitutes a serious complaint relating to the member’s appointment or employment.

   (2) The Pro-Vice-Chancellor shall formulate or arrange for the formulation of the charge or charges and shall present or arrange for the presentation of the charge or charges before the Tribunal.

   (3) Where the Council has been requested to appoint a Tribunal under Clause 16 the Secretary to the Council or if he is unable to act another officer appointed by the Vice-Chancellor shall take charge of the proceedings.
