GLAR is the home of public international law, EU law and human rights law at the University of Reading. The Ghandhi Research Seminar Series showcases the work of experts in these fields. The series was launched in 2015 and is convened this year by Dr Marie Aronsson-Storrier and Matthew Windsor. It is named in honour of Professor Sandy Ghandhi, who taught at the School of Law from 1978 to 2013 and remains an emeritus professor at Reading.

Anyone is welcome to attend these seminars, and attendance is free. However, visitors coming from outside of the University of Reading are kindly asked to send advance notification that they will be attending (m.r.windsor@reading.ac.uk).

All seminars will take place from 13:00-14:00 in Foxhill House, School of Law, University of Reading.
