THINGS TO CONSIDER

CHOOSE YOUR RESIDENCY PERIOD

• 40 weeks: You rent your room during term time and the Christmas and Easter vacations. This means you move in just before the start of Welcome Week and move out after the end of the Summer Term. This option is normally preferred by undergraduate students.

• 51 weeks: You rent your room during term time and the Christmas, Easter and Summer vacations. This means you move in just before the start of Welcome Week and move out at the end of the Summer Vacation.

YOUR PREFERRED ROOM TYPE

It is a good idea to think about the room type that may suit you best. Consider whether you are happy to share a bathroom, whether it is important for you to be in a modern hall or would you prefer a more traditional style. The following pages should help guide you through your choices.

YOUR ACCOMMODATION BUDGET

Utility bills, Wi-Fi and a basic level of contents insurance are all included in the accommodation costs. If you choose a catered hall you will receive a catering allowance of £61.67 per week (31 weeks of term time) to spend on meals.

Other accommodation costs you might want to consider include laundry charges, the cost of food if you are in a self-catered hall, JCR membership and any additional contents insurance. For advice about managing your money and budgeting see www.reading.ac.uk/life-moneymatters.aspx and www.rusu.co.uk/advice/money_advice/

SELF-CATERED ACCOMMODATION

Kitchens are shared between residents and include a hob and oven, microwave, fridge and freezer, kettle, toaster, cupboard and storage space for each resident. Self-catered residents can load cash onto their campus cards online and receive discounts in the various catering outlets across campus. See www.reading.ac.uk/campuscards
