

Teaching Excellence Award for Arts, Humanities and Social Science

Emma Aston

Emma is always enthusiastic and is always introducing new topics to expand students' horizons. Emma's insightful teaching approach goes above and beyond the expected to provide students with a learning experience of a very high standard.

Teaching Excellence Award for Science

Karen Ayres

Karen is extremely engaging and responsive to students and shows true passion for her subject. Not only has Karen pioneered Teaching and learning seminars, but she has also lead careers talks and has been actively working with Course Reps to improve Academic Representation in her department.

Teaching Excellence Award for Life Science

Vesna Stojanovik

Vesna has perfectly tailored the content of each of her lectures to ensure that it is applicable to students and their future careers. Vesna goes the extra mile for her students; she is always approachable and really cares about her students' welfare.

Teaching Excellence Award for Henley Business School

Claire Fenton

Claire's effective and engaging teaching style makes her lectures a pleasure to attend and something to look forward to. She also shows genuine interest and concern for everyone's performance which motivates students to continually improve.

Personal Tutor Excellence Award

Karin Lesnik-Oberstein

Karin has been an inspirational figure and has invested in her students' academic and personal development. Her guidance and support has encouraged students to refine their own skills and build confidence towards their studies.

Support Staff Excellence Award

Karon Curran

Karon consistently builds connections and engages with all students in the School of Construction Management and Engineering. Students admire her ability to advise and solve problems in an efficient manner. Karon always prioritises the students' needs over everything else.

Technological Innovation in Teaching Excellence Award

Emma Mayhew

Emma's forward thinking and innovative approach to lectures, and more importantly, feedback has created a perfect learning environment. She is willing to explore different Medias and technologies, such as Screencasts and video feedback to enhance the education experience for students.

Research Inspired Teaching Excellence Award

Mara Oliva

Mara uses research to inspire her students, by providing them with information on the latest publications and her current practice and research papers. Mara is a great motivator and instigates students to utilise research in their own work and to have the confidence to write their own academic papers in the future.
