LANGUAGE STUDIES WORKING PAPERS - GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

Submission

- Papers should be emailed to lswp@reading.ac.uk as a .doc or .rtf attachment.
- By submitting authors acknowledge that their paper has not been previously published, nor is it before another journal for consideration.
- Maximum length, including notes and references, is 5,000 words.
- A 200-word abstract summarising the content of the paper should be added after the title.
- The accompanying email message must include the author’s full name and contact details, as well as a short biographic note.

Formatting

- The text should be: single-spaced; in Times New Roman 12-point font; with italics, rather than underlining, for emphasis; illustrations, figures, and tables within the text at the appropriate points, rather than at the end.

References

In the text, references should be given as follows:

- This is a controversial aspect in the literature (Smith 1986).
- Smith (1986) disagrees with this approach.
- Smith argues that “the traditional approach is untenable” (1986: 45).

At the end of the text there should be a list of all the references cited in the paper, whether they are books, book chapters or articles in journals. These should be in Times New Roman 10 point and displayed respectively as shown below:

Some examples of these features are shown in the template “Example paper format” that can be downloaded from the LSWP home webpage:
