These Maples flower and come into leaf several weeks earlier than Norway Maples which they resemble.

The Balkan Maple is smaller and slower growing eventually reaching 10–12m.

The New Film and Theatre project has been designed around these trees so access to the group will not be available until its completion.