A PhD: What, me?

For students from the Faculty of Arts, Humanities and Social Science and the Henley Business School

Find out what’s involved in a research degree, how to apply, opportunities for funding, and other useful stuff

A workshop designed for those considering embarking on a research degree or who just want to know more.

- What is a PhD?
- Life as a PhD student
- Entry requirements
- The admissions process
- Writing a research proposal
- How the Graduate School can support you
- Funding opportunities at Reading

To book a place, please send your name and student number to:

gradschool@reading.ac.uk

Wednesday 20 November 2013
14.00-16.00, Palmer Building, 102

www.reading.ac.uk/graduateschool