

Autumn 2017 History Department Seminar Series (and other events!)

All welcome!
Refreshments provided

All seminars held Wednesday 4:30 - 6 pm in Edith Morley 126 unless otherwise stated.

27th September: Natalie Thomlinson (Reading), 'Never the same again? Feminism, women and the miners' strike'.

11th October: Public lecture, Jacqui Turner (Reading), 'Suffrage and Citizenship'. Palmer Building G10. Doors 7.30 for 8pm.

18th October: Lars Kjaer (New College of Humanities), 'Family, Conquests and the Appeal of the First Crusade'.

15th November: Matthew Worley (Reading), 'Suburban Relapse: British Punk and the Politics of Boredom'.

23rd November: Stenton Lecture: Stephen Smith (Oxford), 'The Russian Revolution: A Hundred Years on'. Henley Business School G11. Doors 7pm for 7.30.

29th November: Donna Yamani (Reading), 'A Model of Engagement Between Artwork and Architecture - The Use of Transitional Space in Suzanne Lacy's Between The Door And The Street (2013)'.

For more information please contact Natalie Thomlinson n.thomlinson@reading.ac.uk