Tuesday, 27 February 2007
Department of History, room 142, Humanities and Social Sciences Building

12:30-1:30
Brigitte Leucht (Portsmouth)
"Transatlantic policy networks and the creation of a supranational European antitrust law, 1950-51"

Billy Davies (KCL)

1:30-1:45 Coffee break

1:45-2:30
Pier Ludlow (LSE)
"Law and Ideology: The missing dimensions of the European integration story?"

----------------------------------------

Wednesday, 13 June 2007
Department of History, room 142, Humanities and Social Sciences Building

12.30-1:30
Matthew Broad (University of Reading) 'The 1975 Referendum on EEC membership: Old Arguments and New Perspectives'

1.30
Coffee

1.45
Christopher Lord (University of Reading)
'Two constitutionalisms? A comparison of British and French Government attempts to justify the Treaty establishing a Constitution for Europe'.

..........

Wednesday, 14 November 2007
Department of History, room 142, Humanities and Social Sciences Building
12.30-1:30
Daniel Furby (Queen Mary).
The case for Europe: Whitehall attitudes to EEC membership on the eve of the second enlargement negotiations.

Elizabeth Benning (LSE).
EMU, oil and power: West German economic power and the breakdown on the path to economic and monetary union, September 1973- February 1974.

1.30
Coffee

1.45
Jonathan Golub (Reading)
Did the Luxembourg Compromise have any consequences?

Wednesday, 20 February 2008
Department of History, room 142, Humanities and Social Sciences Building

12:30-1:30
Peter Svik (ENS, Paris)
"The non-military issues on the Brussels Treaty Organization agenda between 1948 and 1952."

Eirini Karamouzi (LSE)

1:30-1:45: Coffee break

1:45-2:30
James Ellison (Queen Mary)
"Did the Johnson administration neglect Europe?"

-----------------------------

Special Session: Britain and the EEC/EU: Part of Europe or apart from Europe?
Tuesday, 29 April 2008
Department of History, room 142, HUMSS Building

10:45-11:30
Helen Parr (Keele) 'The significance of Britain's second application for membership of the EEC in 1967'.

11:30-1:00: The Labour Party and Europe

Christopher Cotton (Cambridge), 'The Road to 1981: the place of Europe in Labour's breakdown'. Discussant: Piers Ludlow.

1:00-2:30 Lunch

2:30-3:15
James Ellison (Queen Mary), 'In Double Harness': Community Membership and Britain’s wider European policies in the 1960s'.

3:15-3:30 Break

3:30-5:00: Institutions and civil service
Daniel Furby (Queen Mary), 'More Catholic than the Pope'? The Foreign Office and the pursuit of European unity, 1968-1971'. Discussant: Piers Ludlow.

Ilaria Poggiolini (Pavia), ‘Conclusions’.

………..

Wednesday, 12 November 2008
Department of History, University of Reading
Room 142, Humanities and Social Sciences Building

12:45-1:30
Oliver Reinert (Humboldt Universität, Berlin)

1:30-1:45: Coffee break
1:45-2:30
Oliver Daddow (Loughborough)
Stuck in the quicksand of history: Blair’s European discourses

Wednesday, 18 February 2009
Department of History, University of Reading
Room 142, Humanities and Social Sciences Building

12:45-1:30
Wolfram Kaiser (University Portsmouth)
“Transnational Networks in European Governance: From the ECSC to the EU”

1:30-1:45
Coffee break

1:45-2:30
Jan-Henrik Meyer (University of Portsmouth)
“Networks in European Community policy-making: Environmental policy in the 1970s”

Wednesday, 2 December 2009
Department of History, University of Reading
Room 142, Humanities and Social Sciences Building

12:30-1:15
Anne Neubauer (Humboldt Universität, Berlin)
British agriculture and European integration, 1957-75

1:15-1:30: Coffee break

1:30-2:15
Rogelia Pastor-Castro (University of Strathclyde)
Britain, France and the European Defence Community, 1950-1954

……

Wednesday, 17 February 2010
European integration and the Cold War
Sixth HEIRS Conference, University of Reading, 15-16 April 2010
The Sixth HEIRS Conference, arranged by Christian Salm and Matthew Broad, took place at the University of Reading, UK.
For more information: http://www.heirs-eu.org/

Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Department of History, University of Reading
Room 142, Humanities and Social Sciences Building

12:30 - 1:15
Daniel Furby (Queen Mary, University of London)
'Harold Wilson and the "Soames affair" revisited'

1:15 - 1:30: Coffee Break

1:30 - 2:30
James Ellison (Queen Mary, University of London)
Cross Purposes: US views on Britain’s place in Europe, 1945-1968

Wednesday, 1 June 2011
Department of History, University of Reading
Room 142, Humanities and Social Sciences Building

11:30 – 12:30
Laura Kottos (Reading)
Evolution of an idea: the economic cooperation of Europe and Empire. The Work of the European League for Economic Cooperation (ELEC), 1947-1957

Maria Chen (LSE)
Negotiating Wine at the European Economic Community, 1967-1970

12:30 – 1:15 Lunch

1:15 – 2:15
Morten Johannes Winstrup Hansen (Aarhus)
Danes in European Transnational Parliamentary Assemblies, 1949-1989: A prosopographic elite study

Isabelle Hertner (Royal Holloway)
It’s up to the leadership: A comparative study of Labour, SPD and PS European policy-making

2:15 – 2:30 Coffee

2:30 – 3:30
Oliver Daddow (Loughborough)
From Bruges to Blair: The Mainstreaming of Eurosceptical Discourse in Britain

Wednesday, 30 November 2011
Department of History, University of Reading
Room 142, Humanities and Social Sciences Building

12:30 – 1:30
Luc-André Brunet (LSE)
The New Industrial Order: Reorganising French Industry in a German Europe, Summer 1940

Eirini Karamouzi (LSE)
Dealing with Greece: the EEC and the second enlargement

1:30 – 2:00 Coffee

2:00 – 3:00
Glen O’Hara (Oxford Brooks)
Rivals as well as Allies: Anglo-American Financial Diplomacy in the 1960s
Wednesday, 29 February 2012
University of Reading, HUMSS G86

12:30
Helen Parr (Keele)
The nuclear myth: Edward Heath, Europe and the international politics of Anglo-French nuclear co-operation, 1970-73

1:30 - 1:45 Coffee

1:45
Kristina Spohr-Readman (LSE)

Wednesday, 2 May 2012
Department of History, University of Reading
Room 142, Humanities and Social Sciences Building

12:30
Stefanie Pukallus (Sheffield)
“European civil integration: The representations of European citizenship as publicly communicated by the European Commission 1951-2012”

1:15 Coffee break

1:30
Angela Romano (LSE)
"Unofficial, yet intensive: Relations between the European Community and communist Europe in the 1970s".