

How to respect communities in International Development work: languages and cultural understanding

Institute of Modern Languages Research, Senate House,
University of London, Court Room
(Malet Street, Bloomsbury, London WC1E 7HU)
Wednesday June 27th 2018

Registration and Coffee from 9.00am.

Keynote: 9.30 am Linda McAvan MEP, Chair of the Development Committee, European Parliament

10.00-12.00 Panel 1 - Country Perspectives

Peru: Dr Cindy Krose, Capital Humano y Social Alternativo, Lima

Kyrgyzstan: Cholpon Ismailovna Akmatova, freelance interpreter & translator

Malawi: Michael Chasukwa, University of Malawi

12.00- 1.00 Lunch (for all)

1.00-3.30 Panel 2 - Next steps: INGOs and donors

Ehtisham Ul Hassan, Save the Children UK
Kate Bingley, Christian Aid
Alice Keen, Tearfund
Liesel Bakker, Stars Foundation
Jessica Matthews, Family for Every Child
Davide Pettinato, Muslim Charities Foundation
Hana Albana, Global One

3.30-4.00 Tea (for all)

4.00-6.00 Panel 3 - Next Steps: disciplinary perspectives

Dr Vanessa Pupavac, International Relations, Nottingham University
Professor Alison Phipps, UNESCO Chair in Refugee Integration through Languages and the Arts, Glasgow University
Professor Christina Schaeffner, Translation Studies, Aston University
Professor Myriam Salama-Carr, Translation Studies, Manchester University
Professor Charles Forsdick, Arts and Humanities Research Council,
Translating Cultures Fellow

Photos: Creative Commons Attribution Licence CC by 2.0 (<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/2.0>).
Image 1 by EU-Peru Programme; image 2 by Peter Nicholls