In progress: Dr. Stoett has been commissioned to write a background paper for the Global Commission for Security, Justice and Governance, a joint initiative with The Stimson Center in Washington D.C. and the Hague Institute for Global Justice. His contribution will examine the evolution of and future prospects for transnational environmental crime prevention. Co-chaired by former U.S. Secretary of State Madeleine Albright, the Commission's recommendations will aim to complement the UN Post-2015 Sustainable Development Goals agenda, the intergovernmental Fourth Global Conference on Cyberspace in The Hague (April 2015), the recommendations of UN Peacebuilding Commission 10-Year Review (October 2015), and the UN Conference of Parties on Climate Change (COP 21) in Paris (December 2015).

Dr. Stoett has been appointed a contributing author to the Global and North American Regional Global Environmental Outlook 6 Reports, the flagship publication of the United Nations Environmental Programme. The regional report is currently in progress and the global report will be compiled in 2017.
