We have places in halls for returning students. Our team are here to help and support you through the process.

If you’re a second, third or fourth year in 2021/22 and are interested about living in halls again, scan the QR code to visit our website reading.ac.uk/return-to-hall.

Here are some things we want you to know:

- We’re working as normal. Students can still book accommodation with us, as before.
- Students are our top priority, as always. We’re keeping an eye out on global developments and adapting quickly.
- We’re keeping all communication clear and simple.
- We’re regularly updating our website to make sure you have all the necessary information. Remember to check out our Virtual Tours!
- Our team is available Monday-Friday to address students’ questions and requests. Now more than ever, we’re here to support students.
- Our accommodation booking and cancellation policies are being updated regularly so you have all the correct information you need before you book.

Most importantly, we want you to know that we’re here for you.

If you have any questions or queries or would like to know more about booking accommodation at the University of Reading, please contact us.
