

TRAVEL, TOURISM AND LOGISTICS

Overview

The travel and tourism sector accounts for one in ten jobs globally and is the second fastest growing sector in the world, according to the World Travel and Tourism Council. Leisure, commercial and business travel agents and tour operators offer a huge range of transport, hospitality and tour services, with tourist boards promoting the benefits of different destinations. Smart phone technology has brought huge changes to the industry, which is set to grow and huge increases in travel social media influencers is changing how travel destinations and companies reach new audiences.

Logistics includes freight logistics, passenger transport and transport planning and traffic management. Jobs in transport can include front end roles as pilot, aircrew and support roles such as customer service and safety and route planning. Jobs in logistics can include the planning and managing the supply chain moving goods and services from supplier to consumer efficiently.

As these are customer focused industries, any experience you can gain in a customer service, sales, office or warehouse environments will be valuable. Volunteering or a position of responsibility, where you can develop your team work and communication skills will also be valuable. Approaching local small and medium sized firms directly to enquire about work experience and shadowing opportunities is a good way to make contacts and build experience.
