Fire alarms

- All buildings have a fire alarm system that incorporates automatic fire detection.
- A red break glass fire alarm call point is located at every staircase or external exit door. There is also a fire action notice near or next to the manual call point.
- If you discover a fire and the fire alarm is not yet sounding, then raise the alarm by pressing the manual call point.
- The sound will vary between buildings but will be a voice alarm interspersed with a siren, warbling tone, bells or klaxon.
- Visual warning signals may also be provided such as a strobe light or a sounder beacon.

Fire alarm call point

Fire exits

- On hearing or seeing the fire alarm sounding make your way to the nearest available safe exit route and leave the building without delay.
- There are alternative means of escape via external spiral staircases on the upper floors at either end of the building.
- Swipe access doors on escape routes will automatically release on the activation of the fire alarm.
- A green break glass call point is located next to the swipe access door. Should the door not release press the middle of the green break glass call point and the door will release.

Fire assembly point

- Make your way to the designated fire assembly point. This will be identified in the building fire action notice.
- Do not re-enter the building.
- Wait at the assembly point until you are informed by the Evacuation Officer or University Security that it is safe to return to the building.

Do not use lifts

Disabled refuge

Commend refuge

Passenger lifts

- A passenger lift is available in this building to the upper floors, with restricted access to the roof level floor. When the fire alarm sounds in the building, the lift will automatically go to the ground floor where the lift doors will open.
- Lifts will then remain out of use until the fire alarm is over.
- Do not attempt to use the lifts in the event of a fire emergency – always use the nearest available safe fire exit route via the stairs.

Disabled refuges

- This building allows access to the upper floors (via passenger lifts) has fire refuges. These provide protection from fire and smoke for at least 30 minutes and can be found on the exit routes in or near to the fire exit staircase.
- If the fire alarm sounds you should move to a refuge.
- A member of the building fire evacuation team will return to you in the refuge until the need to evacuate or the all clear is given.
- While waiting in a refuge you may have a designated friend or carer stay with you in the refuge during the fire alarm activation.
- You will be assisted from the refuge on confirmation of a real fire. This is to avoid unnecessary stress upon the you being evacuated from the refuge due to a false alarm.
- Follow the instructions on the information poster in the refuge to summon assistance via the red Commend communications intercom.
- Press the button on the evacuation intercom in order to let Security know that you are in the refuge and may need assistance.
- This building has an Escape chair and an Escape mattress is located in a nearby building to help assist you down from the stairs on upper floors in the event of a confirmed fire
- The University has trained staff to operate the evacuation lift, escape chair, and escape mattress.
