

CENTRE FOR COMMERCIAL LAW AND FINANCIAL REGULATION RESEARCH SEMINAR SERIES (2019/2020)

---

The Centre for Commercial Law and Financial Regulation (CCLFR) is a forum for stimulating and conducting research and disseminating knowledge on international commercial law. The Centre focuses on advancing legal scholarship, brings together scholars, policymakers and practitioners in law and finance and influences the development and application of commercial law and financial regulation in practice through research projects, conferences, teaching and publications.

Here is our programme of upcoming research seminars.

- Bonus cap and remuneration policy in the banking sector

Dr Andreas Kokkinis, Associate Professor, Warwick University, School of Law

Wednesday, 30 October, 11:00 am to 13:00 pm, Chancellors Building, G13 Whiteknights Campus

- Employee representation on boards

Professor Konstantinos Sergakis, Chair, University of Glasgow, School of Law

Wednesday, 20 November, 11:00 am to 13:00 pm, Chancellors Building, G13 Whiteknights Campus

- Securitisation and Capital Markets Union

Dr Vincenzo Bavoso, Senior lecturer, University of Manchester, School of Law

Wednesday, 04 December, 11:00 am to 13:00 pm, Chancellors Building, G13 Whiteknights Campus

- Artificial Intelligence in Financial Services

Dr Francesco De Pascalis, Lecturer, Brunel University, School of Law

Tuesday, 21 January, 2020, 14:00 pm to 16:00 pm, Edith Morley, Room 189 Whiteknights Campus

Attendance is FREE. Email commerciallms@reading.ac.uk to RSVP.