

The Museum of English Rural Life is part of the University Museums and Special Collections Services

ANNUAL LECTURE

The Museum of English Rural Life

JAMES CORNER

Thursday 22 October | 7.30pm
Great Hall, London Road campus

Admission is free, places are limited.

To book a place please contact:

merlevents@reading.ac.uk

0118 378 8660

Cutting-edge landscape architect James Corner – renowned for designing New York's much loved High Line and the South Park Plaza of London's Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park – will deliver the 2015 Lecture. The Lecture is being held jointly with the Landscape Institute, whose unrivalled library and archive are held at the Museum of English Rural Life.

Named by TIME Magazine as one of the 'Top Ten Designers in the World', James Corner is now working on several high-visibility urban projects around the world, such as San Francisco's Presidio Parklands and London's Battersea Power Plant Development.

University of Reading