

Use this flowchart to identify which team in professional services is most likely to be able to help you with developing your public engagement activity.

A University-wide working group including representatives from teams across professional services will share individual requests and provide as much support and sign-posting to other resources as possible.